

B.A./BSc. Film Studies General

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES (PSOs)

After successful completion of 3-Year: 6-Semester General Programme in Film Studies a student should be able to achieve the following:

| | |
|------|---|
| PSO1 | Knowledge of Film Production, Aesthetics and History: Provides an overall idea of film making, film aesthetics along with several film theories and film history in the context of international cinema. |
| PSO2 | Development Perspectives with emphasis on Indian Film Industry: Importance of cinema as cultural and sociological factor in Indian society as well as the economic importance of India's heterogeneous film industry. |
| PSO3 | Film Technology and Its Application: Provides knowledge and practical training of feature and documentary film making and associate activities like script writing, storyboard framing, film publicity and promotion and etc. |
| PSO4 | Research Aptitude: Develops ideas and aptitudes for research on films in social, cultural, economic and educational aspects. |
| PSO5 | Socio-Economic Awareness: Creates an out look to judge cinema as an important social, cultural, economic, political factor besides its importance as an amusement provider. |
| PSO6 | Higher Education & Employability: Opens up opportunity for higher education and increase employability in a world where audio-visual products become a part of our social, economic, political, cultural, educational as well as personal activities. |