

PROGRAMME

After successful completion of 3-Year: 6-Semester Honours Programme in Geography a student should be able to achieve the following:

PSO1	Knowledge of Geographical System: enables the student to understand the geographical realms from different perspectives of physical human and socio - economic parameters. The understanding of such geographic system assess the holistic development of student capabilities in relation to their environment.
PSO2	Development Perspectives with emphasis on GIS and remote sensing technique: The application of GIS and remote sensing techniques allocates the students ability of understanding the physical and socio cultural attributes of geographical knowledge into more detailed and precised digital form . It also provides a platform for further career enhancement in different job sectors.
PSO3	Instruments statistical technique and mapping system:- The hands on training with different instruments enables the students to understand the geomorphology of the place. Moreover the application of statistical technique, mapping system in the geography practical articulate the student to understand and develop the technological and analytical skills in the pre and post field work activities allowing them to prepare for good research and project work.
PSO4	Research Aptitude: Enables the students ability to use scientific and empirical approaches to comprehend, analyse and critically evaluate the various geographical issues.
PSO5	Socio-Economic Awareness: Enables the student to understand the complex process of Society, Economy, Environment in more sustainable way.
PSO6	Higher Education & Employability: Enables the students to study on various branches of science and social science for higher education and thereby providing different avenues for job opportunities.