

Teacher's Profile:

Name of the Teacher	Sarmistha Dutta Roy
Age	51 years
Gender	Female
Academic Qualification	M.A. in Film Studies from Jadavpur University
Professional Qualification	Post-graduate certificate course in Editing from EMRC
Awards and Recognitions	Sure Short Award from Shalimar Chemicals Ltd for the short film "A Different Celebration in 2018"; 1 st Runner Up in the short film contest organized by Tea Board of India for the short Film "Tea & Me" in 2020.
Designation	SACT
Date of joining the college	1 st August 2006
Years of Teaching Experience	16 years 11 months
Administrative Experience	Head of the Department of Film Studies from 2006 - 2021
Professional Experience	Worked as script-writer & director of a number of Documentary films, docu-feature funded by NGOs, Govt. of West Bengal, Goethe-Institut Currently working as a script-writer & director in a pan-India documentary project funded by Sasakawa-India Leprosy Foundation, an international NGO. Writing study material of PG in Journalism & Mass Communication at NSOU
Research work/project	Nil
Research Publications	Nil
Seminars/Workshops/Certificate Courses/Professional Training Programmes/Webinars/E-Quiz attended	Seminars organized internally by Muralidhar Girls' College
Papers Presented	Nil
Methods followed in classroom teaching	Along with chalk & talk regular screenings are done & discussions are held on the basis of it. Departmental equipment are displayed & students are guided to use them for coverage of different internal programmes thus providing them a training opportunity.
Any innovative ideas introduced to improve teaching learning	Interactive sessions, PPT presentations by the students, micro teaching
Academic and personal guidance and counseling of the students	Students are regularly guided on academic issues like post-graduate studies, career decisions etc.