

About the Department

The Department of Statistics was established in the year 2006 with an introduction of General course in Statistics. The department aims to train students for analyzing data arising in different investigations in various disciplines using various Statistical techniques. There is a good collection of books in central library with latest titles in various areas of statistics. Regarding job opportunities in various multi-national companies, many students got suitable placement in Research Institutes or Industries or Government Departments.